OBJECTIVE

(Please find attached a copy of the post event reports regarding the different programmes that we have conducted for Financial Year ending 31 March 2018)

The objective of the Charity are as follows:-

- To organize (including partnership, support and co-organise) youth outreach programmes and events to train and develop the youth in the area of leadership and character building by providing opportunities for the youth to participate in Youth-related Leadership or Character Education (workshops, symposiums, events & conferences) conducted both locally and globally.
- To encourage the spirit of volunteerism and build social cohesiveness through social, racial, transcultural integration related programs and youth community projects conducted globally and locally.
- To manage all functions (from recruitment, selection, deployment and promotion) of all youth facilitators, volunteers and trainers as well as oversee and manage relevant certification for youth related courses and training programs.
- To equip young Singaporeans with necessary leadership skills and cultural sensitivity to take on opportunities at the global stage, encouraging cross cultural dialogues between Singaporean youths and youths of other nationalities through 10 key thrusts: -
 - Arts and Culture
 - Sports and Adventure
 - Community and Service Learning
 - Character and Leadership Education
 - Environmental and Entrepreneurship Education
